

The St. Stephan Church in gothic style and a water-mill from the XIX. century (Széchenyi tér 10.) are the main attractions of the village. The water-mill is still working and the former mill-house with the stable exists as a mill-industry museum.