

The building of holiday-houses started at the beginning of the century. The tourist centre of the town is at the Danube, and the Protestant Church is also nice. As the town is situated at the Danube, there is a yacht port in Szódliget.