

The town is situated in a very impressive environment, at the foot of the Börzsöny Mountain, and opposite the castle hill of Visegrád and the top of the Szentendrei Island.

Visitors can make very nice trips by the mountain train to Királyrét or can climb in the mountain and reach Kisinóc, Nagy-hideghegy or Csóványos. The cellars and the presshouses at the Dózsa Gy. Street as well as the Catholic Church are nice in the village.
