

The town is beloved by excursioners and tourists because of its very nice location. There's a wonderful view of the castle of Visegrád and the Danube bend from Julianus look-out-tower. The most famous citizen of the town was Kálmán Kittenberger, the explorer of Africa - every summer in honour of him there is a Kittenberger Feast in the town.

Sights: Catholic Church, Kálvária Chapel & Stations of Christ's last way, the home of Kittenberger, chesnut-forrest.

There is a ferry between Nagymaros and Visegrád.

Excursioners can use the 33 km long „Queen Beatrix" bicycle road on the left side of the Danube.

Látnivalók: római katolikus templom, kálvária kápolna és stációk, Szent Rókus kápolna,

Kittenberger Kálmán lakóháza, szelídgesztenyés természetvédelmi terület

A Dunán Nagymaros és Visegrád között kompjárat közlekedik

A kirándulók a bal parton haladó, 33 km hosszú Beatrix királynő kerékpárúton is folytathatják útjukat.
