

The legend of the statue on the cover sheet symbolizes the town Vác.

Once upon a time lived the Eremite Vác in the forest and prophesied to Prince Géza his win against King Solomon. Prince Géza and László met in the forest a wonder deer, wich had candles in its horn. After seeing this wonderful phenomnom Géza decided to establish a church on this place. This is the origin of the bishopric Vác.